SPACE

This November we are showcasing a small selection of our artists in an intimate SPACE for art, in the heart of Clapham Old Town, London.

This exciting exhibition will highlight work by Nicole Rose, together with Henrie Haldane, Anita Kutsarova, Irene Prada, Stuart Redler and Fleur Alston.

All six artists make reference to space in their art. Nicole Rose captures and paints the space between reality and daydream in her ethereal abstract landscapes. Fleur Alston reflects our relationship with the natural world and our surroundings, using the central point of a mandala as the space within which the viewer can identify themselves. Henrie Haldane and Anita Kutsarova convey vast expanses of space and distance, huge impressive skies and dramatic seascapes. Stuart Redler and Irene Prada both focus on the positive and negative spaces in their more monochromatic compositions.

The exhibition runs from Monday 21st until Thursday 24th November.
Opening hours are from 10am to 7pm daily, or by appointment.

We look forward to seeing you at: 1 The Polygon, Clapham Old Town, London SW4 0JG
